Palm Sunday

On Palm Sunday of the Lord's Passion, we celebrate Jesus' triumphant entry into Jerusalem but also commemorate the beginning of Holy Week and Jesus' final journey to the cross. This reflection focuses on the holy procession into Jerusalem (Mk 11:1-10). When Jesus and the disciples near Jerusalem, he sends two disciples ahead: "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately on entering it, you will find a colt tethered on which no one has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here." As the Son of God, Jesus had precise foreknowledge of the colt and gives the disciples a response for anyone asking why they want the animal: "The Master has need of it and will send it back here at once." Everything unfolds as Jesus described and they bring the colt to Jesus and cover it with their cloaks. He mounts the colt and adoration breaks out among the crowd. Moved by His presence, they cover the road with their cloaks and cut tree branches, an honor reserved for kings and others deemed worthy of this highest honor. They cry out in homage: "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come! Hosanna in the highest." It is the fulfillment of the Messianic prophecy of Zechariah: "Rejoice heartily, O daughter Zion, shout for joy, O daughter Jerusalem! See your king shall come to you: a just savior is he, meek, and riding on an ass, on a colt, the foal of an ass" (9:9).

Jesus has awakened great hope and joy in the hearts of the people that have met and heard about Him. His unfathomable love has reached out to the humble, poor, forgotten, lepers, sick, demon possessed, and despised. Jesus has brought healing, forgiveness, freedom from demons, new lifestyles, and most importantly eternal salvation. His divine teachings were new. Teachings spoken with authority and accompanied by many signs and wonders. Jesus reached out to body and soul. He was God but lowered himself to walk with them and us. He is our friend, brother, the light to our path, the joy of our salvation. Ours is not a joy of having possessions but from having encountered Jesus. We are never alone even in the most difficult times. "If you keep my commandments, you will abide in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and abide in his love. These things I have spoken to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be full" (Jn 15:10-11). Have you encountered Jesus?

Nationwide invitation prayer to end abortion

We ask Catholics to offer this prayer daily, from March 25 through June, when a decision is expected. Online and print versions of the prayer can be found at www.respectlife.org/prayer-to-st-joseph.

Pray From March 25 through June

Dearest St. Joseph, at the word of an angel, you lovingly took Mary into your home. As God's humble servant, you guided the Holy Family on the road to Bethlehem, welcomed Jesus as your own son in the shelter of a manger, and fled far from your homeland for the safety of both Mother and Child. We praise God that as their faithful protector, you never hesitated to sacrifice for those entrusted to you. May your example inspire us also to welcome, cherish, and safeguard God's most precious gift of life. Help us to faithfully commit ourselves to the service and defense of human life- especially where it is vulnerable or threatened. Obtain for us the grace to do the will of God in all things. Amen.

National Eucharistic Revival

Join more than 80,000 Catholics throughout the country who will be attending the National Eucharistic Congress, July 18-21, 2024, in Indianapolis, Indiana!

Our Catholic Church throughout the country has been observing a three-year time of study, prayer, and action to increase our knowledge, love, and life as a Eucharistic community. The concluding event is the National Eucharistic Congress in July 2024. The program includes times of celebrations of Mass, prayer, workshops, and activities for all who attend. Various speakers, musicians, and animators will make this a time of excitement and encouragement for all who attend. Scheduling, speakers, and registration information can be found at www.eucharisticcongress.org/register

For questions and additional information, contact the registration team at the following email NECRegistration@eucharisticcongress.org. ALL ARE WELCOME!
