5th Sunday of Easter

"Remain in me, as I remain in you. Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine, so neither can you unless you remain in me." John 15:4

Our first reading today ends with describing the church as "being built up and walked in fear of the Lord and with the consolation of the Holy Spirit it grew in numbers." It is beautiful seeing our church growing with brothers and sisters. One great and amazing life that we hear from our scripture about St Paul. After celebrating our Easter, we do need to see and follow our early church. Saul's encounter with the Risen Jesus was so powerful that he immediately became a Christian and spoke "boldly in the name of Jesus. Saul was a persecutor of Christians but when Jesus appeared to him on the road to Damascus everything changed in his life. He became an Apostle Paul to proclaim Jesus to the world.

In the Gospel, Jesus explains Jesus's relationship with us through an example by saying that He (Jesus) is "The true vine". We are the branches. If we wish to thrive and bear good fruit, we must remain connected to Jesus because without him we can do nothing. What we need to do is remain in Jesus. This means recognizing that when we do great things, it is because of the goodness of the Lord. It means not just having a superficial relationship with him but to unite ourselves in a deep abiding way that penetrates our soul.

One way of doing this is to look at the attitude we approach Mass with. Another way to think about it using Jesus words is to ask ourselves if we are willing to let the Lord prune us? Do we let Jesus direct the way our lives go? "To remain in Jesus means to keep his commandments and to keep his commandment means to love God with all our hearts souls and minds and to love our neighbor as ourselves." (Matt 22:37-39)

What do we try to do in our lives? Are we bearing fruit?
Are you willing to let Jesus and the Holy Spirit charge you?
