GOSPEL MEDITATION

“You are my beloved Son”

-Luke 3:22

In my second year of theology studies, I went to confession to a priest visiting the seminary for a three-day retreat. My heart wasn't in it. I was going through the motions. I confessed my sins and waited for his response. The priest said, “For your penance, I'd like you to go into the chapel and repeat the words ‘You are my beloved Son, with you I am well pleased’ (Luke 3:22) until they mean something to you.” Easy penance, I thought.

But to my surprise, I struggled to say those words. I sensed a strong interior resistance blocking them. How could God be well-pleased with me? He couldn't be, I thought. A battle within me ensued. Two hours later, the resistance vanished, and I found myself able to speak, and claim as my own, those marvelous words. I emerged from the chapel with a new, deep, peaceful conviction that I was indeed God's beloved son.

Those words are a precious gift from heaven to all of us. Jesus' baptism, which we celebrate this week, offers them to us. Are we willing to receive these words anew? Many things can block this deepening of our baptismal identity: failings, sins, disappointments, traumas, problems, and so on. Yet God's love is always greater. This week I challenge you to prayerfully repeat these words over yourself — or perhaps over someone you're struggling to love — until those words find a home in your heart.

— Father John Muir

You are a child of god,
You are Wonderfully made, dearly loved and precious
in his sight.
Psalm 139

Everyone knows what it is to hope. In the heart of each person, hope dwells as the desire and expectation of good things to come, despite our not knowing what the future may bring. Even so, uncertainty about the future may at times give rise to conflicting feelings, ranging from confident trust to apprehensiveness, from serenity to anxiety, from firm conviction to hesitation and doubt. Often we come across people who are discouraged, pessimistic, and cynical about the future, as if nothing could possibly bring them happiness. For all of us may the Jubilee be an opportunity to be renewed in hope. God's word helps us find reasons for that hope.

January

The month dedicated to the Most Holy Name of Jesus

Feast of the Most Holy Name: January 2

In the Name of Jesus let every knee bow of those that are in heaven (angels) on earth (men) and under the earth (devils).

And Peter said to them,

REPENT and be BAPTIZED

every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

“Our Lord made a covenant with us through baptism in order to give us eternal life.”
+St. Basil the Great, bishop (329-379 A.D.)

“Christ is the first to be baptized, then, so that Christians will follow after him with confidence.”
+ St. Maximus of Turin, bishop (380-465 A.D.)

Prayer for Hope

Eternal Father,

Through the resurrection of Jesus the good news of Your love has touched the world. By our baptism we are reborn as your Children of Light. Through the work of Your Spirit the glory of your new creation continues to unfold.

Watch over Your family of faith in the Archdiocese of Regina.

Inspire us by the prompting of Your Spirit: that our elders may dream new dreams and our youth may find wisdom in visions.

Give us a courageous heart, a bold voice and openness of mind, and above all else, ears that listen.

Help us, as Your family, to discover Your way: storytelling and dialogue which leads to understanding; ideas which challenge growth; a journey which will bring hope.

We offer you this prayer for you are our life, our strength and guide, Our loving God, for ever and ever. Amen.

EXCEPTIONAL SERVICE.
NO EXCEPTIONS.

Some people think that choosing a modest memorial means sacrificing service. Our commitment to excellent service allows us to say that no matter what kind of a memorial you have in mind, we'll provide you with the best service available, bar none.
